KALI LINUX

Command:

Pwd   —> PWD is actually standing for print working Directory.

ls   —> This is also a very commonly used command in the Kali linux platform. Command `ls` is actually provinding the entire list of documents available in that specific directory.

cd —> `cd` command is mainly used for changing the directory in the kali linux platform.

Mkdir —> Mkdir is one of the key commands for the Kali linux platform.

Cat —> Cat command is commonly used for displaying the entire content of one file.

Cp -> This Kali linux command is normally used for copying the file.

History -> This command is holding the history of all the executed command on the Linux platform.

Rm -> Rm command is used for mainly deleting or removing files or multiple files. If we use this rm command recursively, then it will remove the entire directory.

awk -> Find and Replace text.

bg -> Send to back ground.

chmod -> change access permissions.

clear -> Clear terminal screen.

echo -> Display message on screen.

enable -> Enable and disable builtin shell commands.

exit -> Exit the shell.

ifconfig -> Configure a network interface.

kill -> Stop a process from running.

ping -> Test a network connection.

tar -> Tape Archiver.

type -> Describe a command.

umask -> Users file creation mask.

whoami -> print the current userid and name.

xdg-open -> open a file.